

AGREEMENT

The Shilo Perpetual Trophy To be awarded at the 2011 Canadian National Specialty

The SHILO Perpetual Trophy is to be awarded to the oldest Toller, aged seven or more on the day of the Specialty CKC Working Certificate Tests that successfully passes a WC or WCI test.

Eligible Tollers must be trained and handled by their owner and must not have earned any field or hunt test title by any other organization that required double marked retrieves.

While owner/handlers may seek training instruction from others, eligible Tollers must not have been trained by anyone other than the owner/handler as this Trophy is meant to reward a senior Toller and his/her companion.

Applicants will indicate on the Field Premium if they are eligible for the SHILO Perpetual Trophy and will fill out and sign the accompanying form which is to be sent in with the Premium.
